

In Chennai Telephones Circle as per the four Operation Areas (OAs) exist 4 distinct union conferences were held jointly at Flower Bazaar exchange compound. The joint conference of four district unions was attended by 300 comrades including 85 women employees . Com N Danapal presided over the joint conference. Com S Ekambaram welcomed the gathering. Com K M Elangovan paid homage to the martyrs. Com C K M , Circle Secretary and the Secretary (CHQ) inaugurated the joint conference. He elaborated the vexed issue of third wage revision delay and criticised the management for postponing the joint wage negotiation committee meeting proposed on 10/03/25 on flimsy grounds in an irresponsible manner in his blistering attack .

Com C Singh , the General Secretary explained the current issues in detail including the delay in implementing the third wage revision for our employees and the need for a new promotion policy instead of the existing useless and discriminative NEPP signed by BSNLEU in 2006 . He called upon the members to strengthen the union and appreciated the Chennai Telephones Comrades for always keeping the Union in very active and alert position . All the four OA heads of the management participated in the joint conference and spoke about the current situation and sought the cooperation of union for improving the efficiency and quality of telecom services in CHTD . PGM (South) D. M . Baskar, PGM (North) Ajay Chandra , PGM (Central) Rajeev Kumar and PGM (West) Trilok Chandra greeted the conference. CHQ Organising Secretary N Muneer Ali also spoke .

On behalf of NFTCL Tamilnadu State Committee its State Secretary S Anandan , Senior Vice President P Sundaram , Assistant Secretary P Shanmugam , Tiruchi district Secretary Amulraj, Cuddalore district Secretary Manjini spoke at the conference .

On behalf of NFTE Circle Union Comrades M K Ramasamy , Circle President and C Ravi , Circle Treasurer addressed the conference Two women employees from K K Nagar quit BSNLEU and joined NFTE on the stage in the presence of our General Secretary , C Singh . Both of them were honoured by Com. V Manimegalai , Assistant Circle Secretary .

In the beginning both red flags of NFTE and NFTCL were hoisted by comrades Meganathan , Tiruttani Branch Secretary of NFTE and T Satya , State Treasurer of NFTCL amidst shouting of slogans and busting of crackers . This conference which began at 11 am concluded at 4 pm . Com M Sendhil , Circle Vice President proposed vote of thanks.

Election of new office bearers was unanimous to all the four district unions . Comrades S Ekambaram , T Ravichandran, V Mathivanan and P S Sunil were elected as the District Secretaries for Chennai (South), Chennai (Central), Chennai (North) and Chennai (West) District Unions. A decent and tasty lunch was provided to all the participants of the conference including the four PGMs . On the whole this massive conference looked like a Circle Conference and once again proved the strength and popularity of NFTE - BSNL in Chennai Telephones Circle as a whole.

