Dated:-07-03-2016

To,

Director
(HR)
BSNL, New Delhi.

Subject:- JTO LICE 2013 vis-à-vis settling the matter relating to Ex-servicemen.

Respected Madam,

Sequel to decisions by different Courts the ex-servicemen employees were permitted to appear in JTO LICE 2013 and results declared. Such employees have also been sent for phase –I training.

The BSNL HQR has preferred an appeal at Chandigarh high Court. It is very strange that company's counsel is not appearing on the hearing dates reportedly on some advice from the local management.

This is serious matter as future of hundreds of employees is at stake. The case at Principal Bench will also be decided as per verdict of Chandigarh High Court. Apart from above the LICE JTO has now been declared and Ex-servicemen employees are in fix to appear in the examination or not. We may point out that in the LICE JAO concession has been extended to the Ex-servicemen as per orders of BSNL HQR.

Kindly, therefore, get the entire matter looked into and resolved expeditiously.

Yours faithfully,

(Chandeshwar Singh)
General Secretary
