Subject:- illogical postponement of LICE of Telecom Tech (Erst while TM) in Jharkhand circle.

Respected Madam,

It is to bring to your personal kind notice that the circle management/coordinator of the LICE arbitrarily and illogically postponed the exam all of a sudden before one week of the schedule date of exam (20-08-2017).

It is nothing but carelessness and irresponsible act of exam coordinator and other concern officers who did not take care for the carrier of downgraded staff.

The eligible staff were ready with all their preparation taking leave etc, to appear in the examination but they deprived to know the postponement and they are raising questions that why only Jharkhand circle is failed to conduct the exam when it is being conducted throughout the country as per schedule.

Really it is shocking and surprising that without taking prior permission from corporate office to postpone the exam, how the authority of Jharkhand circle took the decision arbitrarily.

We, therefore, request you to kindly arrange enquiry to fix the accountability and appropriate action against the guilty officers involve in this misdeeds.

With profound regards,

Yours faithfully,

(Chandeshwar Singh)
General Secretary
